ON VIEW

Janet Cardiff and George Bures Miller, “The Marionette Maker”

A full-scale vintage camping trailer serves as a theater for a puppet show featuring marionettes performing an opera and/or otherwise acting out different scenes—including a rather self-reflexive one of a puppet-maker in his workshop. Viewers can walk around the vehicle, taking in the various tableaux playing out through the windows. Taken as a whole, the work offers a sort of outdoor expedition through the uncanny valley.
