

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Luhring Augustine Presents

August 15-29, 2008

Opening reception: August 14, 6-8 pm

Luhring Augustine is pleased to present a group exhibition that recognizes the creativity of those who work on our team. As is the case in most galleries and art institutions, many of the people who work at the gallery are also seriously engaged in their own artistic projects. We are taking this opportunity to acknowledge and share the creative practices which occupy some of our staff in their hours away from the gallery.

Exhibited work will include paintings, photographs, works on paper and sculptures by Sophie Aschauer, Donovan Barrow, Gabriel Bennett, Charles Black, Joshua Brown, Caroline Burghardt, Daniel Crews, Tiffany Edwards, Ryan Ford, Paul Krause, Junpei Murao, and Chad Nelson. Additionally, there will be contributions by staff members who endeavor to be creative, but do not maintain full time art practices.

For more information and to view images from the exhibition, please contact the gallery at 212.206.9100 or info@luhringaugustine.com.
